

iRis Networks Privacy Policy

In the course of doing business with iRis Networks, you may be asked to share personal, business, and financial information with us. You may be asked to provide information when communicating or transacting with us in writing, electronically, or by telephone. On occasion, such information may come from outside agencies or communications providers, and others that provide services to us.

We treat this and all information as confidential and recognize the importance of protecting access to it. You should note, however, that it is impossible to guarantee that such information is or will be completely safe from unauthorized access or use.

We do not sell information about current or former customers to any unrelated third parties, and we do not disclose it to third parties unless necessary to process a transaction, service an account, to protect the security and integrity of the iRis network and our services, to protect our rights and property and the rights and property of others, to respond to claims that submitted information violates the rights or interest of third parties, to take precautions against liability, to correct technical problems and malfunctions or as otherwise permitted or required by law or legal process.

This website may contain links to third party websites or logos. While we try to link only to sites that share our standards and respect for privacy, we are not responsible for the content or the privacy practice of any third party websites.

For this reason, we encourage you to review the privacy policies of these websites before disclosing any personal information to or through them.

If you have any questions or concerns about this Privacy Policy or the privacy practices of iRis Networks, please contact us by phone or by sending an e-mail request to privacy@iRistransport.com.
